

Contract Administration – Mechanisms, Glitches & Nightmares Seminar

17 May: Launceston: Contract Administration

Contract Administration is one of the most important functions of architectural practice with legal, financial and reputational implications. This must-see National Seminar Series will provide an introduction to the mechanisms of Contract Administration under common lump sum building contracts for small to medium-sized projects.

When: 1pm-3pm Wednesday 17 May

Where: Room IC118, School of Architecture and Design, University of Tasmania,
8 Invermay Road, Inveresk

Cost: $15

Book now

16 May: Hobart: Contract Administration

Contract Administration is one of the most important functions of architectural practice with legal, financial and reputational implications. This must-see National Seminar Series will provide an introduction to the mechanisms of Contract Administration under common lump sum building contracts for small to medium-sized projects.

When: 1pm-3pm Tuesday 16 May

Where: Institute of Architects, Tasmanian Chapter, 1/19a Hunter St, Hobart

Cost: $15

Book now

These seminars are subsidised via a Grant from the Tasmanian Government