

Condensation and Airtight Buildings

This seminar presents an overview of the science of the built fabric particular to condensation. Drs Mark Dewsbury and Tim Law discuss the health implications of condensation and mould, together with the lack of recourse from tenants and building owners in testing, insurance claims or litigation. The presentation will make evident why the problem of condensation has to be avoided in the design stage and how architects and engineers can play a vital role in managing this issue.

Hobart: 12:30pm-2pm Wednesday 9 August

BOOK NOW

Launceston: 12:30pm-2pm Thursday 10 August

BOOK NOW

Tasmanian CPD events are proudly supported by

These seminars are subsidised via a Grant from the Tasmanian Government