

Tasmania and the World's Great Small Cities

Do the Great Small Cities of the World provide ideas for the future direction of Tasmania and its regions? Join the Tasmanian planning community to listen to local, national and international speakers discuss these ideas and how they relate to the present and future of Tasmania.

This year, we are doing the PIA State Planning Conference differently – we have a two-day format and social networking events. We have confirmed a wide range of speakers including Minister for Planning Peter Gutwein, Associate Professor Trevor Budge (Manager Regional Sustainable Development with City of Bendigo), Ralph Webster (Creative City Lead at City of Melbourne, formerly in a range of positions in Auckland and originally from Launceston) and local speakers including Leanne Hurst, Jan Davis, Astrid Kettelaar and others to discuss various aspects of where planning is at in Tasmania and how the concept of Great Small Cities of the World might apply here.

The 2017 Conference is your opportunity to interact with your colleagues and peers in Tasmania's planning community, as we come together to reflect upon and talk about the future of our state.

Date: Thursday 24 & Friday 25 August, 2017

Venue: Tramsheds , 8-10 Invermay Rd, Invermay

For more information refer to:

<https://www.planning.org.au/tas-conference-home>