

NSS: Drop In, Chill Out - Design Innovation for Safety in Construction

This National Seminar Series will provide a refresher on the work health and safety legislation in relation to designer responsibilities and discuss how designers can achieve a safe design approach in their projects. By understanding the issues and challenges of the construction project and the ongoing use of the structure, architects have the ability to provide innovative solutions to these challenges.

- Hobart: Tuesday 20 March, 12pm
Centre for Architecture, 1/19a Hunters Street
Book Here
- Launceston: Wednesday 21 March, 1pm
UTAS School of Creative Arts, 4 Invermay Road
Book Here
- Livestream (AEDT): Monday 26 March, 11am
Book Here

Cost: $15.00

Tasmanian CPD events are proudly supported by

This seminar is subsidised via a Grant from the Tasmanian Government