

In a two part presentation, the directors will speak about the concepts and methodologies behind projects across numerous typologies, alongside adjustments to project and practice management enabled by cloud based management platforms.

EDITION OFFICE

Edition Office is an architecture studio based in Melbourne, Australia. Establishing the practice on finely crafted, award winning houses, the practice has recently extended its experience into the public realm including commercial and Federal Government galleries, a commission for the Australian War Memorial and various shortlisted competitions. Edition Office is led by Kim Bridgland and Aaron Roberts (a founding director of Room11 Architects).
